Dear Joe & Vins:

I just want to let you know how pleased we are with your jazz trio. Sunday evening has become my favorite night of the week and, as you know, so many of my customers feel the same.

Having hired other musicians, I notice and appreciate your sensitivity to issues we deal with in running a restaurant. For example, your music never gets too loud -- so many musicians forget that people in a restaurant want to enjoy conversation while they eat. Yours is the first group I've encountered which creates a fun and tasteful atmosphere while not becoming intrusive.

Again, I want to thank you for the great music you share with us every Sunday night.

Best Regards,
