Dear Vinson and Lee:

I want to thank you very much for the music that you have provided for my events over the past year. Whether I was hosting a 500 person dinner for ING Barings at the New York Historical Society or organizing a small function for a law firm at The Penthouse, your music has always been a key ingredient to successful evenings.

As you well know, attention to detail is very important to the success of my functions. Whenever Just Jazz provides the musicians, I am confident that I am furnishing high quality, elegant music for my clients. In fact, my piano never sounds better than when it is being played by one of your pianists. And if the party requires dancing, as last month's event did, your trio certainly supplies the swing to get people up and moving.

Again, I want to thank you and Just Jazz for all the wonderful music that you have provided Andy King Events. I look forward to planning many more successful functions, using your music as the finishing touch.

Best,

Andy King
